

Kidnap, Ransom & Extortion Insurance Proposal Form

Important Notice

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Privacy Policy

We are bound by the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and its associated National Privacy Principles when we collect and handle your personal information. We collect personal information in order to provide our services and products. We also pass it to third parties involved in this process such as our reinsurers, agents, loss adjusters and other service providers. If you do not provide the information we need we may not be able to offer you insurance or deal with claims under your insurance.

When you give us personal or sensitive information about other individuals, we rely on you to have made or make them aware that you will or may provide their information to us, the purposes we use it for, the types of third parties that we disclose it to and how they can access it. If it is sensitive information we rely on you to have obtained their consent on these matters. If you have not done either of these things, you must tell us before you provide the relevant information.

You can seek access to and if necessary, correct your personal information by contacting our Privacy Officer, during business hours on:

Telephone: 02 8298 5800
Fax: 02 8298 5888
Mail: Locked Bag 18, Royal Exchange, NSW, 1225

Subrogation

If LIU grants indemnity under this policy then LIU shall be subrogated to all of the Insured's rights of recovery against any person or entity whether or not a payment has in fact been made and whether or not the Insured or Insured Person has been compensated in full for their loss. The Insured must, at its own cost, provide all reasonable assistance to LIU (including, but not limited to giving information, signing documents and giving evidence) to help enforce those rights.

The Insured must not do anything that may prejudice LIU's position or potential or actual rights of recovery against any parties.

Any amounts recovered by LIU in excess of LIU's total payment to the Insured shall be restored to them less the cost to LIU of such recovery.
